Michael Sekulovski

Email: [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Sekulovski:

Re: Estate of Jim Sekulovski

I have reviewed your correspondence dated August 7, 2020 responding to my own letter about the sale of the cottage property.

I note that your correspondence does not directly address the process for paying the debts of the estate set out in Justice Gilmore's Order. In particular, you have not addressed my position that the cottage should be sold under paragraph 10(c) of the Order, given the alternative cost of borrowing against the property.

Instead, my understanding is that you object to my dealing with the cottage in any way. You claim that Justice Gilmore's Order, which appoints me as ETDL and gives me the authority to administer the estate, was obtained by fraud, although you do not explain how. It seems that you also question whether you are subject to the laws of the province of Ontario.

I do not follow your reasoning and am not familiar with the arguments that you are making. As ETDL in this matter, I have a duty to administer the estate in accordance with the Order appointing me and the laws of the province. I respectfully suggest that you consult with a lawyer who is licensed to practice law in Ontario.

In the meantime, I am proceeding with my plan to list the cottage for sale, and I will keep you and the other heirs updated about the listing process.

Yours very truly,

Rob Levesque

Michael Sekulovski

Dear Counsel and Mr. Sekulovski:

Re: Estate of Jim Sekulovski

I write further to my previous correspondence regarding the sale of the cottage property.

I have spoken with Ryan Allary, a real estate agent with Keller Williams Experience Realty Brokerage, about listing the property. You will recall that Mr. Allary provided me with a letter of opinion on the value of the property earlier this year, which appraised it as having a value of between $440,000 and $450,000.

Mr. Allary and I have reviewed the current cottage inventory in Tiny and have determined that the property should be listed at $449,000. We hope to have the property on the market shortly.

I will be making arrangements to inventory and store some of the personal property that is located at the cottage prior to any closing date. If you are aware of any items of monetary or sentimental value that you would like me to preserve, then please let me know as soon as possible.

Yours very truly,

Rob Levesque

Re: Trespass [Property of Jim Sekulovski] – your File # 05-009/2020 and #05-141/19

NOTICE

Good day Bernadette,

i, was able to join at beginning of the zoom call... but not brought in after Christopher brought in;

i, dialed back immediately but was kept on hold/zoom was waiting for host to let me in with no avail;

It is regrettable host hindered my appearance as i, gave NOTICE August 28th 2020 on appearance;

Bernadette confirmed my NOTICE was received and read yet ignored willfully;

i, appeared honorably as a man...i am not a legal person or some corporation Bernadette spoke to;

Bernadette [and BAR members] are required to produce obligations [contracts] to jurisdiction;

Bernadette willfully ignored her duty to protect the property of man whom she has a duty to serve;

Christopher also addressed honorably jurisdiction requiring obligations produced again they were not;

Bernadette a public servant relied on 'Rules of Civil Procedure' without evidence it applies to i:man;

i, am left with no choice to move claim and court against all who do trespass including now Bernadette;

i, require Bernadette produce the public law in writing, verifiable evidence with wet signature post haste on administrating property without rightthis trespass did/does further wrong and harm;

Without obligation produced then Bernadette appears to act on a belief that i, property?

Exhibit#5

The only law that 'Rules of civil procedure' apply is if i, consent or i property of Bernadette;
Again Bernadette relied upon 'Rules of Civil Procedure' to move court that does NOT apply to i;
Christopher and i, verbally addressed these 'rules' do NOT apply to a [wo]man outside the BAR;
Verified fraud is rampant within this 'legal' court filing and under the color of law by BAR members;
Bernadette did not produce 'findings of facts and conclusions in law' today to trespass causing wrong;
Ignorance of the law [not legal which does NOT apply to a man or woman] is no excuse Bernadette;
Govern yourself accordingly and honorably for you serve 'we the people' not a private 'legal' society;
It is unacceptable to willfully ignore fraud established without written verifiable evidence produced;
Bernadette trespass [barratry, malfeasance] cause further i, wrong and harm... stop it now Bernadette;
i, require zoom call video in it's entirety today as is my right and for my records;
i, did not create this trespass or fraud upon the court... but i will correct it also for [REDACTED]
i, will swear under oath or affirmation that all here in be true;

Kind regards,

Michael of the Sekulovski family

Exhibit #6

Due to the COVID-19 crisis, I held a hearing on August 31, 2020 in the above matter by Zoom videoconference. This hearing was held in accordance with: (a) the Notice to the Profession issued by Chief Justice Morawetz on March 15, 2020 and the Update dated April 2, 2020; and (b) the "Changes to Commercial List operations in light of COVID-19" developed by the Commercial List judges in consultation with the Commercial List Users Committee. The Zoom videoconference facilities were arranged by Arkin Furrow Estate Law LLP to facilitate the hearing, as per the foregoing COVID-19 practice directions.

Materials were sent to me by email prior to the hearing.

1. Michael Sekulovski is a respondent in these proceedings. He did not file any responding material relating to the motion brought by the Applicant. He did appear from time to time on the Zoom videoconference call, sometimes via video and audio and other times via audio only. He confirmed that he was not "self-representing" and that he had invited Christopher James [REDACTED] to participate as his "counsellor at law." [REDACTED] joined the Zoom videoconference late and at a time when Mr. Sekulovski was not present because of the difficulties he was having with his technology. Mr. Sekulovski was encouraged by the court to participate in the hearing by telephone so he would be present throughout the hearing, but he preferred to continue to try to connect via audio and video. Unfortunately, he was unsuccessful in those efforts and, in the result, he was present only for some of the hearing but not the entire hearing, including the time when [REDACTED] was present or when the Applicant's submissions were made.
2. In the past, Mr. Sekulovski has had legal representation in this matter. He has been represented by two different lawyers, sequentially. He is no longer represented by either. He has not filed a notice of intention to act in person or a notice of a change of solicitor. [REDACTED] attendance at the hearing was relatively short. He acknowledged that he is not a lawyer and left the videoconference shortly after making a submission. [REDACTED] had no standing to make any submission at the hearing.
3. Mr. Sekulovski and [REDACTED] independently of each other, made very similar submissions. They submitted that this court has no jurisdiction over Mr. Sekulovski because he appeared in court as a "man" and not a "person.". They argued that the Rules of Civil Procedure apply to a "person", but not a "man" or a "woman", and therefore the Rules do not apply to him and the court has no jurisdiction over him.
4. Mr. Sekulovski made no submissions on the merits of the motion. He was not present to hear the submissions of the Applicant. [REDACTED] agreed that he would report to Mr. Sekulovski on the Applicant's submissions. However, [REDACTED] did not stay to hear all of them. He left the videoconference because, in his view, the court had no jurisdiction to hear the motion.
5. The motion is brought by the Applicant, who is Mr. Sekulovski's stepmother [REDACTED] Sekulovski. Mrs. Sekulovski is seeking interim dependant's support from the estate of her late husband Jim Sekulovski (the "Deceased"). The Deceased died intestate on January 7, 2019. He was the father of Mr. Sekulovski and the other respondent, [REDACTED] Georgiou. Ms. Georgiou is Mrs. Sekulovski's daughter. Both children are adults.

Exhibit #6

6. According to the rules of intestate succession, Mrs. Sekulovski would receive a preferential share of $200,000 and 1/3 of the residue of the Deceased's estate (the "Estate"). Each of Mr. Sekulovski and Mrs. Georgiou would also receive 1/3 of the residue of the Estate. The net value of the residue of the Estate is estimated to be approximately $1 million, which does not include the Deceased's interest in his late mother's estate. The parties disagree on who is entitled to the Deceased's interest in that estate.
7. On this motion, Mrs. Sekulovski seeks monthly interim support of $4,000 per month, and interim funding of her legal fees and disbursements until the application is resolved.
8. Pursuant to s. 58 of the Succession Law Reform Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. S.26 ("SLRA"), a court may order such support as it considers adequate to be made from an intestate estate for the proper support of dependants. The order may be made on an interim basis per s. 64 of the SLRA.
9. Based on the evidentiary record before the court, which includes Form 13.1 Financial Statements sworn by Mrs. Sekulovski, I am satisfied that she meets the definition of "dependant" for the purposes of interim support. She was the legally married spouse of the Deceased; the Deceased was providing support to her immediately before his death and was under a legal obligation to provide support; and the Deceased did not make adequate provision for her support in the sense that she is in need of support to meet her expenses.
10. Mrs. Sekulovski has some assets and means. She owns a condominium in Oakville, Ontario, on which there is a mortgage. She treats the condominium as a rental property and uses the rental income to pay the mortgage and expenses related to the condominium. She is employed in a furniture factory where she sews upholstery. However, during the current COVID-19 pandemic, the tenants who were renting the condominium could not afford to pay the rent and vacated the condominium. Mrs. Sekulovski has been unable to find a replacement tenant. Mrs. Sekulovski was also laid off from her job for about four months during the pandemic. She returned to work in July, but is uncertain whether her employment will continue over the long-term given the effect of the pandemic on the economy.
11. Mrs. Sekulovski is 64 years of age, with some health problems that could also interfere with her ability to work in the longer term. Mrs. Sekulovski has a Grade 8 education and her work experience has been mainly in manufacturing factories. Her job prospects are limited.
12. Mrs. Sekulovski and the Deceased were married for 38 years and raised two children (the respondents) together. She also contributed to the household by doing most of the homemaking and by contributing her employment earnings to the household.
13. I am satisfied that Mrs. Sekulovski has made a prima facie case for dependant's support.
14. Based on Mrs. Sekulovski's "Current Financial Statement", her monthly expenses exceed her monthly income by about $1,500. Her income does not include rental income from her condominium (which is currently without a tenant). Her expenses include property taxes and utilities, which appear to relate to the matrimonial home in which she and the Deceased resided and where she continues to reside. Her expenses also include $500 per month for "support for other children."
15. I would deduct from the shortfall amount the $500 for "support for other children." There is no evidence regarding the children to whom this support is being paid, that such children are dependant on Mrs. Sekulovski, or that she has any legal obligation to pay this support. It is not obvious how this expense relates to Mrs. Sekulovski's own support as a dependant.

16. To the $1,000 monthly shortfall, I would add $1,000 per month for a total monthly amount of $2,000 in interim support. The additional $1,000 per month would provide Mrs. Sekulovski with a cushion should her employment be terminated temporarily or permanently and assist her in the payment of her ongoing legal fees related to this litigation. Without the latter support, it appears that Mrs. Sekulovski would be required to deplete her relatively modest savings or collapse her RRSP on account of legal fees.
17. In addition to legal fees going forward, prior to this motion, Mrs. Sekulovski has incurred legal fees of more than $40,000 in this litigation. An interim funding order in the amount of $40,000 is appropriate in this case. To pay this amount, without selling her condominium, Mrs. Sekulovski would deplete nearly all of her savings other than her RRSP. Without this interim funding, I am satisfied that Mrs. Sekulovski's ability to pursue dependant's support could be prejudiced or would depend on the generosity of her counsel. Given Mrs. Sekulovski's age and long-term employment prospects, she may have difficulty borrowing money to finance this litigation. This distribution from the Deceased's estate on account of legal fees incurred could be characterized as a lump sum interim support payment or as an advance on Mrs. Sekulovski's share of the intestate estate, as determined by the judge hearing the application.
18. Currently, there is little liquidity in the Deceased's estate. However, the Estate Trustee During Litigation advised the court that the Deceased's cottage property will be listed for sale on September 1, 2020, and that the proceeds of sale would then be available to fund estate expenses, including interim dependant's support if awarded.
19. The respondent [REDACTED] Georgiou is supportive of Mrs. Sekulovski's application for interim dependant's support.
20. Order to go in the form of the draft signed by me today. The Order is effective as of today's date and it is not required that the Order be entered.
