

Certificate of Service

Be it known by all Parties that this is the second attempt to provide notice to Associate Justice Clarence Thomas and Commander in Chief Donald John Trump. It is imperative to understand that notifying the agent is synonymous with notifying the principal, and vice versa. Consequently, it is crucial for both agents and principals to ensure mutual awareness. This obligation extends to notifying insurance and bonding companies associated with either agents or principals.

It is expressly stated that any interference with the timely delivery and communication of this Notice, which is fundamental to the proper conduct of the People's business, shall result in a penalty. Violators may be subject to a penalty of $250,000 per incident and may be subject to imprisonment of not more than twenty years, or death if treason is involved.

The attached Notification is specifically regarding violation of federal law [Revised Statutes §§ 5403, 5408] by the live agent of the Clerk for the Supreme Court of the United States Scott S. Harris for refusing to provide a case number and file the annexed Writ of Praecipe and documents annexed thereto, under color of Supreme Court Rules; contrary to the Court's holding in Miranda v. State of Arizona [384 U.S. 436 @ 491], that there can be no rule making or legislation that abrogates a constitutionally-protected Right. The Undersigned is unaware of any constitutional Authority, which authorizes the Clerk of the Court to require any of the People to pay court fees for issuance of a Writ of Habeas Corpus authorized by Article I, Section 9, clause 2 of Constitution for the United States of America, or that requires payment to exercise any constitutionally-protected unalienable Right.

To the following trustees, agents, and servants, in their personal and professional capacity:

Lawful Notification to the honorable Clarence Thomas, et al., of Corrective Action required to Prevent Maladministration

(Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal and Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent)

Comes now: the live Christian man Robert-Eugene: Graves, with Power of Attorney (hereinafter P.O.A.) and as Next Friend (hereinafter "the Undersigned"), for and on behalf of the live Christian man David-Anthony: Colage, one of the People, as a Member of the American Body Sovereign (as seen in the fifty State Constitutions), living peacefully in the republic state of Oregon (A. D. 1857), Republican in Form; and, does present the named Respondents with this Notice that Respondents and Respondents' agents may provide due care in the performance of Respondents' constitutional fiduciary Duties.

Please take notice that the People, having thoroughly studied and prepared, are now coming together in large numbers across the nation in an orderly and peaceful manner. They are united to instruct their representatives to strictly adhere to fundamental principles to preserve liberty and maintain a free government. Therefore, the Undersigned lawfully instructs Respondents, as servants of the People to whom you are accountable, to promptly issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus for the release of the live Christian man David-Anthony: Colage, one of the People, on the grounds set forth in the annexed documents; to arrest all state actors claiming to be government officials [10 U.S.C § 906(a)(3)] involved in the false imprisonment of David-Anthony: Colage under color of law. Additionally, Respondents must immediately order the live agents of the STATE OF OREGON to provide effective homeopathic treatment of the tumor (now the size of an orange) on Dave's neck, which they, joint and several, have refused to allow any homeopathic treatment to treat said tumor. The following authorities are cited below:

Maxim of Law: One lawfully commanding must be obeyed. Jenk. Cent. 120.

A frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of the constitution, and a constant adherence to those of piety, justice, moderation, temperance, industry, and frugality, are absolutely necessary to preserve the advantages of liberty, and to maintain a free government. The people ought, consequently, to have a particular attention to all those principles, in the choice of their officers and representatives: and they have a right to require of their lawgivers and magistrates, an exact and constant observance of them, in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of the commonwealth. Massachusetts Const. part the first, art. XVIII.

Please take notice that members of the government, as officers, trustees, and servants, whether appointed or elected, are by implied or expressed contract, obligated by oath or affirmation to defend the Constitution of the United States and their State Constitution in a manner that is most consistent with and binding on their conscience from enemies of the republic, both domestic and foreign. It is immaterial whether the assent is given by words, acts, or deeds. The failure of attorneys to understand the lawful obligation inherent in the oath of office for public servants, and/or the presenting of information Contrary to the universally admitted authority of fundamental Law, to any government official or worker, does not excuse the government official or worker from failing to understand their duty, nor does it exempt them from properly performing it. (The following authorities are cited below:)

Maxim of Law: There is no stronger link or bond between men than an oath. Jenk. Cent. Cas. 126; Id. P. 126, case 54.

Maxim of Law: It is immaterial whether a man gives his assent by words or by acts and deeds. 10 Coke, 52.

Please take notice that constitutions and the governments derived from them are not established for the benefit of those in power. A constitution belongs to the nation, not to government servants. The government lacks the authority to amend the Constitution except through the process explicitly detailed in Article V. It also cannot use ultra vires legislation to delegate authority to another agency or to create new authority that was never granted. In America, all constitutions are established by the authority of the People alone, either through delegation or assumption. There are no other sources of power. Delegated power is an expressed trust, while assumed power is usurpation, and the nature of these powers does not change over time. The Federal Reserve Act of A. D. 1913 is an example of an act that passed ultra vires. Article I, Section 8 only grants Congress the authority to “coin Money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign Coin, and fix the Standard of Weights and Measures.” There is no grant of authority that allows Congress to delegate this power to a third party, especially one operating under foreign influence. The following authorities are cited below:

Maxim of Law: All political power is inherent in the People by decree of God; thus, none can exist except it be derived from them. American Maxim of Law.

Maxim of Law: The law is not to be violated by those in government. Jenk. Cent. 7.

Maxim of Law: A delegate cannot delegate; an agent cannot delegate his functions to a subagent without the knowledge or consent of the principal; the person to whom an office or duty is delegated cannot lawfully devolve the duty on another, unless he be expressly authorized so to do. 9 Coke, 77; Broom, Max. 840; 2 Kent, Comm. 633; 2 Steph. Comm. 119.

Maxim of Law: A delegated power cannot be again delegated. 2 Inst. 597; Black's Law Dictionary, Second Edition; 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 1300. A deputy cannot have (or appoint) a deputy. Story, Ag. s. 13; 9 Coke, 77; 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 1936.

Maxim of Law: Where there is no authority for establishing a rule, there is no necessity of obeying it. Black's Law 2d. 1181; Dav. Ir. KB. 69. Useless power is to no purpose. Branch, Prine.

“That all persons invested with the Legislative or Executive powers of Government are the Trustees of the Public, and, as such, accountable for their conduct Wherefore, whenever the ends of Government are perverted, and public liberty manifestly endangered, and all other means of redress are ineffectual, the People may, and of right ought, to reform the old, or establish a new Government; the doctrine of nonresistance against arbitrary power and oppression is absurd, slavish and destructive of the good and happiness of mankind.” Maryland Const. Art. I, § 6.

“The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people.” Bill of Rights, Amendment Ten.

Tucker Blackstone Vol. 1 Appendix Note B [Section 3] 1803 “If in a limited government, the public functionaries exceed the limits which the constitution prescribes to their powers, every act is an act of usurpation in the government, and, as such, treason against the sovereignty of the People.”

Notice of Liability

Please take notice that all officers and trustees (i.e., public servants) are required to take lawful measures to prevent maladministration and must adhere to all provisions of the Constitution, while strictly observing the principles of fundamental law, even in times of crisis and emergency. The thwarting of your duty to correct these issues will be considered a willful trespass with full knowledge, intent, and malice.

Furthermore, if you maintain a differing viewpoint and question the legitimacy of any of these statements, or if, during moments of crisis or urgency, you believe it is within your jurisdiction to violate any inherent Rights of the People, you must reply within ten (10) business days through a sworn affidavit (or verified declaration), made under the pains and penalty of perjury. This reply should contain constitutional provisions that justify your authority to infringe upon the People's Rights or to disregard their lawful directives. Failing to provide such evidence within the designated timeframe is an acknowledgment that all asserted claims are accurate, and you must cease and desist any further violations against the constitutionally-protected Rights of live Christian man David-Anthony: Colage, one of the American People

The Constitution and the fundamental Law (i.e., Common Law) of society, when religiously observed, is the basis of public tranquility, and a security for the liberty of the People. To attack the Constitution and to violate its laws is a capital crime against society; and, if those guilty are invested with authority, they add to this crime a perfidious abuse of the power with which they are entrusted. When government servants betray the trust bestowed upon them, their removal becomes not only a necessity but a safeguard for the integrity of governance. Your failure to correct or any further violations arising from ignorance, ambition, oppression, usurpation, fear, folly, or corruption that impact the lives and liberties of the People will be considered a breach of your trust agreement. This breach will lead to the forfeiture of any granted authority, resulting in your removal from office. Moreover, you agree to accept all fines, fees, penalties and punishments deserving of your transgressions under all applicable law. In addition to compensation of $250,000 per individual, per occurrence, will be pursued for all involved Parties. Additionally, no court shall have the authority to rehear this Matter; it shall stand as evidence and truth in all courts of record.

This Notice is sent to the Respondents in peace and with the love of our Creator, Almighty God, so that the Respondents may provide immediate due care to those in whom all political power is inherent, the American People.

In harmony with 28 U.S.C. § 1746(1), the Undersigned declares under the pains and penalties for making or giving false testimony under the laws of the United States of America, and the republic state of Oregon, that the foregoing is true, correct, and materially complete.

Executed at Eugene, Oregon on this second day of January, A. D. two thousand and twenty-five.
